

THE 72 NAMES OF GOD

THE SECRET OF THE NAME

Nadav Hadar Crivelli

Nadav Hadar Crivelli's work stands out because every three-letter sequence is treated as true name of God and not as if it was the name of an Angel. Many Kabbalistic schools used to add an inflection (El or Yah) to every Name and they would treat it as if it was an Angel. According to Kabbalah, each one of these 72 three-letter sequences is a true, full-fledged name of God. For each of the 72 Names the book gives metaphysical, therapeutic and ceremonial explanations. These are based on ancient Kabbalah texts, namely Shorashei Ha-Shmot by Rabby Moshè Zakuto, one of the most well-qualified experts on the matter. The Shorashei Shmot is not available in any language other than Hebrew. In addition to these explanation, you can also find a brief summary of the words of rav Berg from the American Kabbalah Research Centre and the Canadian Jewish Master Josef Cohen, very active in the therapeutic field of Kabbalah. Furthermore, for each name you can find what the famous but enigmatic "Sefer Raziel Ha Malakh", the Book of the angel Raziel, told about it.

Then the three Angels are examined, whose names come from each of the three letters of God's name. So, 216 Angels are analyzed. 3×72 . In no current publications the 216 are addressed one by one.
