KNOCKING ON WOOD WON'T STOP DEATH FROM KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR

Raimondo Moncada

Humorous and sarcastic essay about death. One of the funniest books of the last 10 years. The author talks about death brilliantly, in all of its aspects. A book that makes you laugh even when you look back on it. It's definitely going to make you laugh, no matter how hard you try to resist: whether you want to resist or "should" resist. The work is at its fifth edition in Italy and appears to be 'immortal', since every edition and reprint is successful.
