NOTES

Already published in Italy. “Telepanettone” is a ridiculous and comical film intended for Christmas time.

Paquito Catanzaro is an actor and a writer. He also teaches two noble professions: that of the actor and that of the narrator.

8 AND A QUARTER. THE IRRESISTIBLE STORY OF THE “TELEPANETTONE”.

Paquito Catanzaro

The director Flavio Miraglia fails with his first tv-movie. A producer grants him the opportunity to redeem himself; he will have to direct a cultural movie – a sort of sentimental version of Gomorra – called “O Vesuvio ‘nnamurato. Kisses and camorra in the shadow of the volcano”.

Miraglia accepts the deal and hires the great and now retired screenwriter Libero Magri, who brings in a group of grotesque actors. Flavio Miraglia has to manage the ramshackle cast and he will live an experience that will make him love his job even more than he already does.
