

THE SHADOW OF THE SKY

Terry Salvini

Tessa and Elisa, both soon to be 40, go on a cruise in the Mediterranean, where they meet a young Swiss businessman, Hans, and his girlfriend Leen.

Tessa falls in love with Hans (an impossible love) and, also suffering from an incurable illness, the night before landing she commits suicide jumping into the sea.

Twelve years later, Ester, a french researcher on vacation in New York, is invited to a birthday party and meets Hans, who is now a film producer.

Every night Ester dreams about falling off a ship and drown.

Mark, Hans' friend and FBI psychologist, tries to shed a light in her mind, whereas Sonny (Lenn's ex-husband) makes matters worse because he falls in love with Ester and tries to let her re-discover her passion for the piano.

Hans and Ester get engaged. The night of Ester's farewell party (thrown by her friends), Leen storms in and, with the intent of shooting Sonny, hits Ester, severely wounding her.

The girl is in the hospital with a coma and Hans realizes that there's a series of similarities between Ester and Tessa, and so asks Mark to investigate on Ester's past.

Ester wakes up from the coma but only partially regains her memory.

Hans, convinced that between Tessa and Ester there's a bond which goes beyond reason, decides to remain beside her for the rest of his life.

DETAILS

Length: 680.000 keystrokes

Price in Italy: € 14,90

ISBN: 9788894218299

TERRY SALVINI

Maria Teresa Salvini is a roman writer. She deals with editing and also with the organization of creative writing workshops.