

DETAILS

PAGES: 200 (14X21)

Forthcoming

Paola Zugna is an Italian writer and poet. Some of her publications are: “A layman’s eye on music”; “Instantaneous poems”; “Enough with religion, I believe in God”; “Messy random stuff”; “Medjugorje... in the hills”; “My wolf’s fable”.

LOOKING FOR WHAT’S UP ABOVE

Paola Zugna

A work with elements of spiritual growth, but that is also about the material aspect of real-life. It’s an autobiographical book that accurately describes the protagonist’s first forty years of life, where the presence of God is what gives value to every day, every minute, every moment. A work that has come true through enlightenment, prayer, inspiration and the aptitude to serve as witness of Father God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

The work has a spiritual basis, but it’s also aimed at those readers who enjoy plain truths and inner journeys; those who are interested in things like confrontation, discovery and thought.

PAOLA ZUGNA

